

ESFHS Study Day and AGM Saturday 30 March 2019

An all-day event at Lingfield & Dormansland Community Centre, High Street, Lingfield, Surrey RH7 6AB. Reluctantly, we will be making a small charge for attendance at the study day this year to cover the cost of the venue; £3 for members and £5 for non-members. There is no charge for attending just the AGM.

The theme this year is Researching before 1837

- 10.00 Doors open
- 10.30 Welcome from Lingfield Secretary
- 10.40 Going back even further with Jane Lewis of Surrey History Centre
Using and interpreting legal documents for family history, including wills, marriage settlements and manorial records. What records there are, where to find them and why family historians should think about using them.
- 11.40 Break
- 12.00 Reading old documents with Elizabeth Danbury
with particular reference to genealogical research
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Population lists before the Victorian censuses with Ian Waller pre 1841 censuses, militia lists and other ways of locating ancestors
- 15.00 Break
- 15.30 ESFHS AGM
- 16.15 Doors close

Our Bookstall and Help Desk will be there all day.

Tea, coffee and biscuits will be available throughout the day. There are pubs and cafes in the village plus a supermarket that sells sandwiches etc.

Parking is limited at the Centre but on-street parking is relatively easy and free, and there is also a car park in Gun Pit Road for a small charge on a Saturday. Southern run trains every 30 minutes from London Victoria via East Croydon to Lingfield Station, which is half a mile from the village. There are two bus routes serving Lingfield on Saturdays, the 409 from Selsdon & Caterham and East Grinstead and the 281 from Three Bridges, Crawley and East Grinstead. Both bus routes run an hourly service.

