

WAR AND PEACE IN SURREY

1914-1919

11am - 4.30pm, Saturday 20 July 2019

Dorking Halls, Dorking, RH4 1SG

A century on from Britain's 'Peace Day', when the nation celebrated the official end of World War I, join us to explore Surrey's wartime people and communities.

Browse our exhibitions, listen to talks, and experience the sights and sounds of wartime Surrey through film, a sound installation, re-enactments and children's activities.

- * Displays showcasing the work of our Surrey-wide partners
- * Children's activities include WWI mini-digs with Surrey County Archaeological Unit
- * Talk topics include Surrey training camps, wartime women, local war photographer Ivan Bawtree, Dorking during the war, Surrey's Red Cross, & the Royal Army Medical Corps (by Andy Robertshaw)

Don't miss this showcase of four years' worth of poignant & fascinating discoveries!
